

KENTUCKY NEWS CUT TO THE QUICK FOR BUSY READERS

March 15th will witness the close of the tobacco market at Paris.

The last tobacco sale was held at Flemingsburg, on February 29.

Five car loads of hogs, bought by Cliff Coleman at Harrodsburg at seven cents per pound.

Capt. James H. Simmons, age 83 years, one of the best known river men of the Ohio, died in Newport.

Christian, Union, Powell, Letcher, Knott and Casey Counties will vote on road bond issues soon.

Henry County will vote on a $300,000 road bond issue within the next sixty days, the Fiscal Court announced last week.

One thousand delegates and visitors from all parts of Kentucky, attended the Layman's Missionary Convention held at Lexington.

James Robinson, charged with the murder of Emmett Woodruff and Glover Hoard, was acquitted as to the murder of Woodruff, at Madisonville.

William R. Thomas died at the age of eighty-six at his home in Elizabethtown. He is survived by wife, whom he married sixty-three years ago.

An attendance of an average of 4,000 people daily marked the most successful automobile show in the history of Louisville, held last week.

Quincey Dye, of Robertson County, was killed and R. T. Maddox, of Paris, wounded in a negro settlement in Paris, infested by negro bootleggers.

A new steel mill at a cost of more than a million dollars, is assured for Ashland. Four hundred men will be employed.

Fair secretaries and horsemen will meet in Winchester on March 9 to form a fair and trotting circuit for Central Kentucky.

The sale of 10,000 acres of rich Morgan County coal and timber land to W. S. Whiting, of North Carolina, was announced in Lexington. The price was $116,000.

Senator James has introduced a bill to give Col. L. M. Maus, now secretary of the Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission, the rank of Brigadier General.

Large buildings at Middlesboro trembled when an earthquake was felt in various parts of Eastern Kentucky last week. It is also said to have been felt in several southern states.

Representative R. Y. Thomas, Jr. has suggested to Congress, an embargo on munition exports as a reprisal against England for refusing tobacco shipments.

A campaign for $300,000 for an auditorium in Louisville, was launched with three hundred business and professional men making a canvass for funds.

Dr. Hiram Arnett, 82 years old, died at his home in Woodford County following a protracted illness. Dr. Arnett was a soldier of Morgan's command. Burial was made in the Lexington cemetery.

A fourth marriage for both bride and groom occurred in the case of the marriage of W. T. Crawford, 46 years old, of Upshur County, West Virginia, to Mrs. Eliza J. Fugate, 43 years old of Whitesburg.

Farmers in the section near Mt. Olivet sustained heavy losses from a recent sudden change in the weather some losing 25 per cent of their lambs. It was caused principally from the ewes wandering from shelter.

A barge of the Pittsburg Coal Co. containing 12,000 bushels of coal, was wrecked on the rocks below the Ohio river dam at Louisville, after being mysteriously loosed from its moorings. The loss was about $3,500.

March 1 marked the closing of the season's tobacco market at Carlisle.

Margaret Drake, negro, 115 years old and reputed to be the oldest woman in Kentucky, died at her home in Woodford County.

At a mass meeting of citizens at Mayfield, in which a Commercial Club was organized, a sum of $1,020 was raised within ten minutes, with which to employ the services of a secretary.

THROW OUT THE LINE

"Throw Out the Life Line!"

Weak kidneys need help.

They're often overlooked—they don't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

Will you help them?

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers.

Read this Hartford case:

J. A. Baird, farmer, R. F. D. No. 3, Hartford, Ky., says: "I had been troubled with sharp twinges across my loins, together with kidney weakness. As I heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I got a supply. One box cured me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr. Baird. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

for the first year.

A few hours following the death of Henry Quisenberry, at Winchester, a telegram was received by the family announcing the sudden death in Moreland, Mo., of Garret Kinney, a lifelong friend and groomsmen at the wedding of Mr. Quisenberry.

Alleged free use of money in the last election in Pike County was called to the attention of the grand jury by Judge John F. Butler, in his charge to the jury and the body was directed to make a sweeping investigation of the charge of irregularities.

Following the suggestion of Judge Henderson in the Circuit Court at Madisonville, the grand jury is investigating charges that a number of society women of that city have been playing cards including five hundred bridge and euchre for prizes.

Forty-nine years of continuous service for Uncle Sam is a record of which to be proud, but Rutherford Birchfield Hayes Swindal has just resigned the postoffice at Osborn's Gap on the Kentucky-Virginia line, tired of his long, uninterrupted service.

County officials in various parts of the state will ask the two Senators to vote for the Shackelford road bill, which passed the House and provides for $700,000 a year for road building in Kentucky.

Joseph T. Hall, an iron peddler, of Louisville, and his daughter Geneva are dead and Mrs. Della Hall probably fatally wounded as a result of a pistol duel between the Halls, in which several shots were fired across the family supper table.

The famous "Union County railroad suit" first court action, which began more than forty-five years ago, was ended last week when $100,000 was paid over to Lillie R. Preston, who has carried on the litigation to recover on railroad bonds of the county begun by her husband.

Mrs. Payton Kincheloe, of near Owensboro, has just completed a gown made of point lace, which she had designed and made. The work required a year's time to complete and was done entirely with a needle. It is valued at $400, and had been ordered by a Chicago firm.

Charged with peddling and bootlegging in defiance of the Government, Miss Evalyn Hall, of Boone's Fork, near Whitesburg, was bound over to the United States District Court for Eastern Kentucky. She executed bond of $500, and was permitted to return to her home.

Providing for a $75,000 appropriation for a site and erection of a new postoffice at Russellville, Representative Thomas has introduced a bill in Congress. He also asks for a $75,000 appropriation to construct a building on a site at Central City, already owned by the Government.

Gangrene set in on Garner Price, a prominent farmer and stockman of Crab Orchard, and he died after suffering for several months from what was diagnosed as necrosis of the feet, the left one having been amputated some time ago in an effort to check gangrene.

The $100,000 road bond issue of Scott County was awarded at Georgetown to Tillotson and Wolcott Co., of Cincinnati, at a premium of $6,100, which was considered excellent. The bonds were much in demand and fourteen representatives from brokerage concerns were present to bid on them.

The customary $500,000 wool crop in the Bluegrass section promises to attain a value of at least $700,000 this year, due to the European war and if the present upward tendency in the market continues to affect the price list, even greater returns may be expected according to the dealers' estimates.

Dr. A. H. Barkley, of Lexington, has been invited to become a member of a party of scientists which will leave New York about the last of March, for an expedition to the wilds of Yucatan, for the purpose of conducting some research work. Dr. Barkley has the matter under consideration and may accept the invitation.

Counties in Kentucky which have voted bond issues by a two-thirds vote are: Ballard and Fayette, $300,000; Lewis and Breathitt, $150,000; Greenup and Knox, $200,000; Bell, Whitley and Harlan, $250,000; Rockcastle, Scott and Laurel, $100,000; Nicholas, $125,000; Clinton, $40,000 and Russell and Carroll, $50,000.

Capt. William Davis, for many years one of the best known conductors on the C. & O. railroad, walked in front of a traction car in Huntington, West Virginia and was instantly killed. He was well known in Maysville and a number of towns and cities through which he made regular trips for many years.

Captain Sam Boone, a commissioned officer in the First Kentucky Cavalry, under General Wolford, of Winchester, has gone to the Soldier's Home at Dayton, Ohio. Capt. Boone is nearly eighty years old, but is in good health. He is the only surviving commissioned officer of his regiment which was recruited mostly in Boyle, Lincoln, Casey, Garrard and Pulaski Counties.

The Retail Merchants of Henderson are fighting the traction lines which run to Evansville, Ind., and which they claim diverts much trade to the Hoosier city. An effort will be made to prevent them from using the tracks of the street car company to reach the city and provisions looking forward to this will be incorporated in a new franchise to be sold this year. In that event, the Evansville traction cars will be compelled to stop at the corporation lines of the city, a mile and a half from the business section of Henderson.

By dictum in the opinion of Judge Hurt in the Court of Appeals, upholding the validity of the Fayette County road bond issue of $300,000, road bond issues in thirteen counties, involving issues of $2,840,000, which carried by a majority vote, but not a two-thirds vote, probably will be validated. All these counties have held elections within a year. Boyd voted $500,000; Mason, Pulaski and Hopkins, $300,000; Davless, $600,000; Kenton, $250,000; Campbell, $200,000; Oldham and Meade, $100,000; Menifee, Trigg and Lincoln, $50,000 and Bracken, $40,000.

The first steamboat to make the run up the Big Sandy River as far as Pikeville within ten years, showed up in that city a few days ago to the surprise of the people of the town. During the 60s, 70s, 80s and 90s people, for hundreds of miles, obtained their supplies from Pikeville, boat service being the only mode of conveyance. When the C. and O. extended its road up the river the river service was abandoned. It is believed now that boats will again begin to ply the Big Sandy in order to assist in handling the great amount of freight and supplies coming into the coal fields of the Upper Big Sandy.

Why Suffer From Colds?

"Wedding's Cold Tablets" will break that cold in a very short time. 25c at Wedding's Drug Store.

RAYMOND.

Noah Sandage and family have moved on Mrs. Effie Coomes' place.

J. S. Ater gave a pound party Monday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chappell went to Brandenburg Saturday to see their son, Lawrence, who is able to be out after being in the hospital in Louisville for several weeks.

John Avitt has a position with the railroad company.

Mrs. Leon Cashman came home last Thursday after being with her son, M.

Puff your way into the joys of Prince Albert!

Go ahead, quick as you lay in a stock of the national joy smoke! Fire up a pipe or a makin's cigarette as though you never did know what tobacco bite and parch meant!

For Prince Albert is freed from bite and parch by a patented process controlled exclusively by us. You can smoke it without a comeback of any kind because P. A. is real tobacco delight.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

will do for you what it has done for thousands of men, not only in the States but all over the world! It will give you a correct idea of what a pipe smoke or a home-rolled cigarette should be.

Get this Prince Albert pipe-peace and makin's-peace message, you men who have "retired" from pipe and cigarette-makin's pleasure; you men who have never known its solace! Because you have a lot of smoke pleasure due you quick as you pack-your-pipe or roll-a-cigarette with P. A. and make fire!

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

On the reverse side of this tidy red tin you will read: "Process Patented July 30th, 1907," which has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked before!

WHERE

Has Your Money Been Absolutely Safe for 43 Years?
AT THE OLD RELIABLE

Breckinridge Bank.

Only 46 Banks in the Whole State of Kentucky Can Say This.

O. Cashman, at Vanzant, for the past three months. Mrs. Cashman has been very ill since the beginning of the year, but is much improved at this writing.

Ed Hartly and family left last Saturday for Illinois to make their home.

Miss Louella Black spent Saturday night with the Misses Basham.

Herbert Kroush closed a very successful school here last Friday. He had a nice treat consisting of candy and oranges. Mabel Stiff and Beulah Norton attended every day for which he is going to send them a present. Mr. Kroush is a good instructor, and we wish him success.

How to Prevent Croup.

When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable everywhere.

Use The Want Column

Save $20 Now

$55.00 pays for a Full Diploma $75.00 Book-keeping or Shorthand Course, TIME UNLIMITED, if you enroll at once. Write today for catalog and $20.00 discount coupon No. 58.

Address

H. O. KEESLING, President

BRYANT & STRATTON BUSINESS COLLEGE

Incorporated

Louisville, Kentucky

Woman's Home Companion for March

Contains a new Serial entitled "The Blue Envelope," by Sophie Keer. A detective story, by Wm. J. Burns. "An awfully Nice Girl," "Chloe Malone,"—"The Rising Tide."

Special Articles:

"The Principles of Giving,"

"Women and Preparedness,"

"One Year of Better Films."

Latest Fads and Fashions

by Grace M. Gould

HOGS ARE STILL ADVANCING

Our Extra Heavy Concentrated Slop

When Properly Balanced, Produces Pork at 3 Cents Per Pound.

"Feed Hogs and Breckinridge County Will Grow"

Call Sam Bivens, Cloverport, Ky., for Particulars

Glenmore Distilleries Co., Owensboro, Ky.